OBJECTIVE

I am looking To one day become a captain of my own boat and I'm determined to make that dream a reality by climbing the ranks and gaining as much experience as I can. I want to learn everything about everything, no job is too small, big, dirty or clean if it's something that I can learn from then just point me in the right direction.

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

I am an extremely motivated, hard-working, and reliable individual. I am flexible, adaptable and comfortable in new situations. I can communicate well, have excellent leadership abilities, and work well as part of a team. I take pride in my punctuality. All skills I learned during my 4 years in the U.S. Army Infantry. There is a lot that I don't know, but more often than not, I only have to be taught something once. I also plan on using any time off to further my career with courses like Kitesurfing and PWC instructor certifications and more.
