

Alissa [REDACTED]

North Palm Beach, FL [REDACTED]

Qualifications

- Proven success with USCG inspections and inspected and classified vessels
- Management and training of staffs and crews of up to 200 persons
- Experienced in steel vessel maintenance
- Successful in managing multi-vessel and multi-location operations
- Experienced with FSP and SSP writing and training
- Experienced with writing, submitting and implementing vessel hurricane/storm safety plans for owners and submission to insurance companies

Employment History

2014- [REDACTED]

2019 Palm Beach, FL

Captain/Engineer for operating small passenger vessel and later laid up for sale. Maintained vessel for sea trials and showings.

2016- M/Y [REDACTED]

Present. Palm Beach, FL

Captain for classic 1967 94' Berger Yacht

Organize drydock periods and storm preparations. Restoring original wood and surfaces. Crew for day trips.

2015- [REDACTED] Boat Works

2019. Riviera Beach, FL

Safety Officer/Office Manager for very busy boatyard adjacent to the Port of [REDACTED]. Review vessel hauling plans, scheduling, ordering parts and supplies for vessels to 130' and 150 metric tonnes. Schedule commercial operations in water for marine construction projects and dredging operations for local and global companies. 75 and 150 metric ton Marine Travelift certification. Trainer certification for lift/fork truck operator. Maintain relationships with vendors to achieve best pricing and volume to improve profits and best cost to customers. Develop relationships with new and returning customers for repeat commitments for their scheduled maintenance.

2012- [REDACTED]

2014 Port of Palm Beach

Master aboard the 160'x65' M/V [REDACTED] a 2676 ITC ton subchapter K vessel operating as a 750 passenger coastal gaming vessel. Responsible for vessel operations, VSO, all crew training for USCG drills and safety training for all staff. Worked to get vessel COI, as it was out of certification for several years. Worked with Naval Architects and USCG to perform new deadweight stability test. In-charge of all engineering and maintenance aboard vessel.

2005- Freelance Captain and Engineer

Present Fort Lauderdale, Miami, Palm Beach

I have performed marine engineering and vessel deliveries for private individuals and commercial companies. Bahamas, US East Coast, Florida.

2009- [REDACTED] Restaurant

2011 Lake Park, FL

Position: Responsible for maintenance of interior and exterior property as well as owner's two private home rentals.

4/2008- M/Y [REDACTED]

4/2010 Ft. Lauderdale, FL

Position: Mate for 130' privately owned yacht. Make vessel ready for showings as it was for sale.

2008- M/V [REDACTED]

2009 Miami/Port Laudania, FL

Position: Master aboard a 160' passenger vessel out of operation. Delivered vessel to ship transport for transit to new owners in Mumbai, India. Oversaw rebuild of two 8-71 generators and two 12-71 mains. Went through all vessel systems as vessel was out of service for two years. Made vessel ready to sail from Mumbai to ultimate destination of Goa, India.

2007- [REDACTED] Casino Cruises

2008 Miami, FL

Position: Master, VSO for M/V [REDACTED] a 160' 285 passenger vessel engaged in coastwise casino operations. Responsible for all marine operations and crew and staff training. Made vessel ready for COI and compliance for new zone.

2006- [REDACTED] Restaurant

2007 Hollywood, FL

Position: Manager for high volume waterfront restaurant. Also responsible for grounds keeping and maintenance of building, including interior and exterior painting, plumbing and refrigeration, maintenance and repairs. Worked for owner to refit 65' private yacht.

2004- ██████████ Casino

2005 Savannah, GA/Freeport, TX

Position: Captain aboard a 167' 450 passenger vessel. Responsible for all marine operations. Captain for delivery of vessel from GA to TX in May 2005. Responsible for implementation of ISM and ship's safety management system. Worked with USCG NVDC and local offices in Savannah and Houston to begin process to evaluate vessel for re-flagging US. Worked with class representative and class surveyors for same. Returned in 9/2008 to secure vessel for Hurricane Ike.

2003- ██████████ Casino

2004 Palm Beach, FL

Position: Master/Marine Operations Manager for the 150' 450 passenger M/V ██████████ which operated from Port of ██████████ as a coastal casino vessel. Oversaw and participated in converting vessel from lightship to an operating casino vessel. This included deadweight stability test and USCG inspection for change of zone. In charge of all maintenance, crew and staff training, scheduling, hiring and purchasing.

2003 ██████████ Casino

Miami, FL

Position: Marine Operations Manager for the 120' 425 passenger M/V ██████████ ██████████ ██████████ which operated from the Miami River and Port of Miami as a coastal casino vessel. Converted vessel from dinner cruise to casino vessel. In charge of all maintenance, crew and staff training, USCG inspections, scheduling, hiring and purchasing.

2002- ██████████ Casino Cruises

2003 Miami, FL

Position: Master/Marine Operations Manager for the 160' 525 passenger M/V ██████████ which operated from Port of Miami as a coastal casino vessel. Delivered vessel from Long Island, NY to Miami. Responsible for all marine operations including USCG inspections and compliance, maintenance, crew and staff training, scheduling, purchasing, bunkering and hiring.

2002- ██████████ Towing and Salvage

2006 Miami, FL

Position: Second captain aboard the 65' tug boat M/V ██████████ ██████████. Worked for two weeks from Miami to Dry Tortugas towing two salvaged shrimp vessels from Ft. Jefferson National Park. In 2004, did a dive operation in Freeport, Bahamas to repair Carnival ██████████ In 2006, did some small tow jobs from Bimini and dive jobs in Miami anchorage.

2000- M/V ██████████

2004 Port Laudania, FL

Position: Able Seaman and Chief Mate aboard the 120' supply vessel ██████████ ██████████, which supplied the construction of the private island ██████████ in the Exumas, Bahamas. Responsible for safety systems management, USCG inspection preparations, customs paperwork, loading of cargo and engine room and bridge watchstanding.

1999- ██████████ Cruises ██████████

2001 Pompano Beach and Miami, FL

Position: Captain and Chief Mate aboard the 130' 350 passenger M/V ██████████ ██████████ operating from Pompano Beach as a coastal casino vessel. Responsible for all maintenance, safety systems management and crew and staff training.

Master/Marine Operations Manager aboard the 100' 450 passenger M/V ██████████ ██████████ which operated from Port of Miami as a coastal casino vessel. Responsible for USCG change of zone COI, crew and staff safety training, safety systems management, maintenance, purchasing, and hiring.

1998- ██████████ Casino

1999 Palm Beach, Ft. Lauderdale, FL and Little River, SC

Position: Bosun's Mate aboard the 220' 670 passenger M/V ██████████ ██████████ ██████████, the 160' 525 passenger M/V ██████████ ██████████, and the 155' 450 passenger M/V ██████████ ██████████, all operating as coastal casino vessels. Responsible for crew and staff training for USCG inspections, maintenance, safety systems management, payroll and scheduling. Chief Mate aboard ██████████ ██████████ in SC in June, July and August 2000. Responsible for the same. Delivery crew company wide for transits to shipyards for bi-annual USCG drydock inspections.

1994- ██████████ Cruises

1998 Palm Beach, FL

Position: Senior Deckhand aboard the 120' 600 passenger M/V ██████████ ██████████ and the 120' 300 passenger M/V ██████████ ██████████, which operated as sightseeing and private function vessels. Coordinated set up of up to six charters per day on two vessels with marine and food service operations. Senior deckhand for purpose of USCG COI, which included managing crew and docking vessel in presence of Coast Guard to satisfy licensed mate requirement. Responsible for maintenance, crew and staff training, and safety systems management. Delivery crew of M/V ██████████ from Connecticut to Palm Beach upon purchase.

1986- A-1 Boat Trips

1993 Wildwood, NJ

Position: Deckhand for a fleet of ocean going passenger vessels 100'-120' and up to 500 passengers. Responsible for maintenance, customer service and passenger safety.

Licenses and Certifications

USCG Merchant Marine Master 100 ton near-coastal (approved to test for 1600/3000 Ton Master Upon any Ocean)

Able Seafarer Unlimited Tonnage upon any ocean

Commonwealth of the Bahamas OICNW and Seaman, Master and Engineer

Radar Observer Unlimited

STCW 95 Bridge Resource Management

Advanced Shipboard Firefighting

STCW 95 Basic Safety Training

EPA 608 Certification

EPA 609 Certification

Republic of Panama-Master

Commercial Towing Certification

Vessel Security Training Certificate

TWIC

MROP

EAP Training

Medical Care Provider, STCW

STCW SSO and Security Endorsement

STCW: Leadership and Management Certificate

CPR/First Aid

Member Maritime Drug Consortium

Other Service Work

Volunteer, Lake Worth Lagoon Keepers

Operation of vessels to tow and remove hazards to navigation from the Lake Worth Lagoon.

Worked in the warehouse to repair boats and remove usable items from derelict boats to recycle and dispose of

Palm Beach Pilots: 2015 Train to be pilot boat operator for relief

References

