Objectives and About Me

-Long career managing and operating yachts and educational vessels. During the pandemic I returned to the vessel delivery service.

-Great customer service skills, enjoy engaging with people in order to enhance their experience on board.

-Excellent ship handling skills, years of experience with logistics and long distance voyage planning and execution. I have successfully managed large crews of 10 or more.

My experience in the maritime industry encompasses a wide range of vessels, from motor yachts to research vessels to sailing ships. I have voyaged extensively along the West Coast, East Coast, and the Caribbean Sea, as well as multiple trans-Atlantic voyages. I also have experience voyaging and operating extensively in Cuba.

While onshore I enjoy playing the cello and oil painting.
